New Leaf Education

Consultant Information

Nicky Visagie is an international educator with 10+ years teaching experience in Bahrain and the UK, and almost 20 years experience working with children and families in other roles. She has worked over the last eight years in both classroom and leadership positions at top schools in Bahrain, including the British School of Bahrain, EtonHouse and Nadeen School. She now owns New Leaf Education WLL, a Bahrain-registered educational consulting and coaching company.

From her years of experience and strong interest in holistic development, Nicky has a firm grasp on growing educational trends in the Early Years sector, and has fostered excellent relationships with educators, parents and schools across the island. She is a certified and ICF-accredited coach, and is adept at providing engaging, up-to-date and transformational development opportunities for educators and parents alike.

Since the birth of her daughter in 2023, Nicky has been committed to supporting teachers and parents in delivering high-quality interactions for our youngest citizens, and pioneering unique and exceptional Early Years and KS1 provision in Bahrain and abroad.
